

MEADOWBROOK CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

As a Congregational church, Meadowbrook traces its roots to the Pilgrims. We continue to explore our faith as a people free to interpret God's Word according to the dictates of our own conscience and in mutual support and love of one another. Not bound by any one creed or statement of faith, Congregationalists are gathered around a local church covenant in which we promise to serve alongside one another as followers of Jesus Christ.

"We look at the Son and see God's original purpose in everything created. For everything, absolutely everything above and below, visible and invisible, rank after rank of angels, everything got started in him and finds its purpose in him."

Colossians 1: 16-17 (The Message translation)

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Dave Milligan

Leader: God, beyond all praising, how glorious is your name!
Congregation: Your glory is sung by all creation, for you are the God of life.

Leader: When we look to the heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and stars, we ask:
'who are we that you care for us and for this world?'

Congregation: O God, our God, we gather to sing your praise!

*GATHERING HYMN

"Great Is the Lord" #21

*INVOCATION & THE LORD'S PRAYER

Dave Milligan

Eternal Lord, on this new morning and in every moment of our lives, we give thanks for your wondrous love. We rejoice as did our ancestors, from generation to generation that we are able to freely worship in spirit and in truth. Open always our hearts to your leading, that we may be disciples of Jesus, as we pray the prayer he taught:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
